

Why Theology Needs

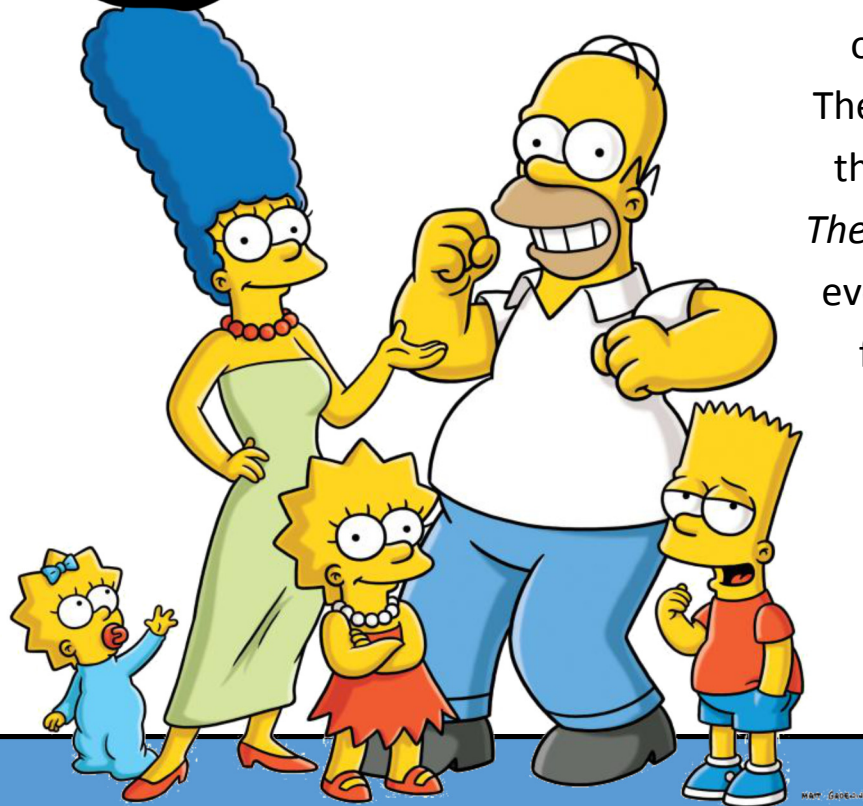

the SIMPSONS

Wednesday February 1

7:15pm

Franz Hall 120

free and open to all refreshments served

The Simpsons TV show has defined a generation. Because of its vast influence on culture, including asking The Big Questions, how could theologians not be drawn to The Simpsons? Come enjoy an evening of surprising insights for people of faith, starting with Homer, Marge, Lisa, and of course, Bartholomew J. Simpson.

Facilitated by longtime Simpsons fans and UP notables Michael Wode and Brendan Ryan, CSC

Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center and the Beckman Humor Project
